Monday, October 19 (6 CEUs)

8:30am – 10:00am Keynote

“An Unbelievable Personal Journey of Healing from Trauma and Substance Use”

*Tonier Cain, President,
Tonier Cain International*

Tonier Cain will share her life story of trauma, domestic violence, substance use, incarceration and the path to her healing. During the keynote, the components of trauma-informed care and how the components can be used to understand the impact of trauma on individuals will be presented. This understanding is needed to prevent doing more harm.

Attendance at Keynote Required to Meet Full Day CEU Requirement.

10:15am – 4:15pm Workshop A

“Trauma-Informed Services and Practices”

*Tonier Cain, President,
Tonier Cain International*

This workshop will provide introductory insight into trauma-informed organizations and service providers. It will provide an introduction to primary components of trauma-informed practices. Information on trauma in relation to human trafficking, substance use, mental health and involvement with the criminal justice system will be reviewed. This workshop is structured to help participants guide people towards healing and a healthy lifestyle.

11:45am – 1:00pm Lunch Break

1:00pm – 4:15pm Workshop A Continued

Tuesday, October 20 (6 CEUs)

8:30am – 11:45am Workshop B

“Special Populations: Their Battle with Co-Occurring Disorders”

Stella M. Nicholson, MA, LCPC, CAADC, MAC, ICB Board Member

Mental illness and substance use disorders many times go hand in hand within special populations. This workshop will examine the world of various mental illnesses in women, adolescents, the elderly, Veterans and other at-risk groups. Assessment and treatment modalities for each of these groups will be explored. Participants will have an opportunity to share their clinical experiences with groups with co-occurring disorders and what they have learned about that particular group that has been enlightening.

11:45am – 1:00pm Lunch Break

1:00pm – 4:15pm Workshop C

“Successful Rehabilitation, Recovery and Re-entry for Pre and Post Release Criminal Justice Clients”

Timothy O’Boyle, MS, CADC, QMHP, ICB Board Member

This workshop will identify potential barriers and effective strategies for working with pre/post release criminal justice clients. It will also touch upon the factors associated with recidivism and relapse, and the importance of risk/needs assessments, comprehensive case management, resource development, educational and vocational programming, substance use disorders and mental health services, as well as community services, to address various barriers. A greater understanding of the importance of recovery support systems and peer support mechanisms will be emphasized.

Wednesday, October 21 (6 CEUs)

8:30am – 11:45am Workshop D

“Problem Gambling – An Update and Information on Special Populations”

Lawrence Dunbar, MS, CAADC, CODP II, CPS, PCGC, ICB President-Elect

This workshop will provide a brief introduction to the elements of problem gambling to form the groundwork for a more in depth exploration on how problem gambling fits into the treatment of individuals who are being assessed and treated for substance use disorders. It will discuss how these two disorders are alike, how they differ and how they interrelate. In addition, it will look at how problem gambling affects special populations such as women and adolescents.

11:45am – 1:00pm Lunch Break

1:00pm – 4:15pm Workshop E

“The String That Ties It All Together: The Importance of Clinical Documentation”

Dona Howell, MS, CRADC, CODP II, ICB Board Member and Timothy O’Boyle, MS, CADC, QMHP, ICB Board Member

Many clinicians feel paper work is not as important as providing direct services to their clients, however, the necessity of being able to clearly and objectively chart a client’s treatment journey is important to understand not only for funding and licensure, but to provide markers for both client and clinician in terms of progress. The importance of identifying strengths and goals through a comprehensive assessment, the development of an inclusive treatment plan and the documentation of progress/lack of progress will be addressed in this hands-on workshop. Additionally, the important role of the clinical supervisor in providing supervision on clinical documentation and how to utilize it to guide services for the client along with meeting requirements for funding and licensure concerns will be discussed.

Thursday, October 22 (6 CEUs)

8:30am – 11:45pm Workshop F

“Helping Clients Maintain Recovery, Mental Health and Wellness During Catastrophes and Pandemics”

Mark Sanders, LCSW, CADC, ICB Board Member

Traumatic crises such as September 11th, natural disasters such as Hurricane Katrina, pandemics like COVID-19 and racial conflict can exacerbate traumatic stress symptoms, increase isolation and the risk of relapse for clients with substance use disorders and psychiatric decompensation for clients with mental illness. Topics will include the relationship between catastrophes, traumatic stress reaction and relapse, concerns related to special populations, including Veterans, youth and the elderly, the use of technology to help clients maintain recovery during catastrophic crises and pandemics and suggestions to improve clinician self-care during these troubling times.

11:45pm – 1:00pm Lunch Break

1:00pm – 4:15pm Workshops G

“Ethical Considerations in Behavioral Health Services”

Michael J. Fonda, LCPC, CSADC, ICB Board Member

With the advent of evidenced based treatment models, treatment has grown to be a highly effective approach to assist those who struggle with behavioral health disorders. However, there are some unique ethical challenges that the helping professional must be equipped to address in order to ensure professionalism and appropriate boundaries. This workshop will explore these challenges as well as to present a framework for ethical decision making. In addition, tools will be provided to help resolve ethical dilemmas as they are encountered. Real life ethical dilemmas will be presented as well as discussion on the development of skills necessary for these situations.

Friday, October 23 (4 CEUs)

8:30am – 1:00pm Workshop H

“The Role of Providers and the Entire Community in Breaking Intergenerational Patterns of Addiction, Dark Secrets and Trauma with Individuals and Families”

Mark Sanders, LCSW, CADC

This workshop will provide prevention, intervention and treatment strategies to help break intergenerational patterns of addictions, trauma and dark secrets with individuals and families. Topics will include the unique risk and protective factors for children of parents with process addictions and substance use disorders, breaking intergenerational patterns of addictions in addressing generational dark secrets and traumatic stress in families, and mental health and criminal justice concerns related to these patterns.
